Dear Freddy:

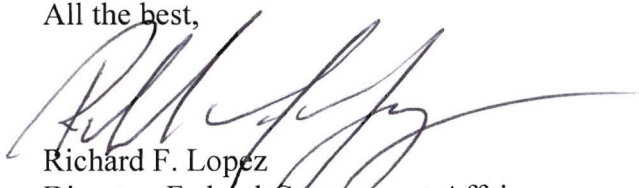

Thank you very much for your assistance in coordinating our rental and stay at the Brooks Tower in Denver for the Democratic Convention. We had an incredible time and your guidance was a main reason for our trip's success.

When looking for housing I wasn't sure what to expect but through the recommendations of others and your advice, we were able to lock down what I thought was the best deal in town. The condos were very much up to our standards and they were much better than staying in any hotel. The rooms were impeccable and the location couldn't have been any better.

After returning to DC, I received many compliments on our condo choice, namely the penthouse. It was the perfect place to stay, the view was incredible and it served as a great hospitality suite where we entertained guests nightly.

Should the Alliance ever need housing in Denver again I will make sure to reach out to you for your assistance.

All the best,
